IPC REPORT FORM: GAMES TIME HARASSMENT OR ABUSE

CONFIDENTIALITY/ANONYMITY/REQUIRED REPORTING

Before we begin, it is important that I explain to you a few things about what will happen with the information you might share with me. Our primary commitment to you is to treat this information as confidential, sharing it only with the small number of individuals who are authorised by the IPC to address these matters.

During this process, we will ensure that your identity (or any identifying information) will not be shared with third parties or in any required aggregate reporting, subject to what may be required by law or by an IPC hearing panel formed to address this matter. Naturally, you may give us permission at any time to share your identify information with third parties.

Given the nature of these matters and the information that you might share with me, the IPC may be required by law to share your identity information with law enforcement officials. This especially is likely if you are not a legal adult (i.e., you are a minor). If you are an adult by law, you may choose not to involve the criminal justice system in this matter. If, however, you do wish to involve the criminal justice system, then you likely will be required to share your identify information with law enforcement officials.
